

University of Pittsburgh

Department of Economics
Dietrich School of Arts and Sciences

PANTHERNOMICS

February 2020

From Pitt Associate Professor to Minister of Economics

Tymofiy Mylovanov has been appointed Ukrainian Minister of Development, Trade, and Agriculture –the chief economic post in the Ukrainian government.

Read More

Nobel Laureate Brings “Controversy” to Posvar

Nobel Prize winner and former Pitt Mellon Professor AI Roth visits the department to discuss "Controversial Markets."

Read More

EMERGING MARKETS

Monetary Policy for Emerging Economies

Research from Assistant Professor Louphou Coulibaly shows how emerging economies should react when foreign investment dries up.

Read More

Everyday Economics: Looking to Neighbors for Climate Change Opinions

Pitt economists show how installing solar panels may impact your neighbors' perceptions of climate change.

Read More

From bottom left to top right: Lia Petrose, Sangya Gyawali, and Joseph Kannarkat

Three Stellar Alumni Return

Joseph Kannarkat, Lia Petrose, and Sangya Gyawali, three recent, award-winning alumni return to the department to speak with undergrads.

Read More

Save the Date

The Department of Economics and the MQE Program present a Distinguished Alumni Panel and Reception

Ari Isaacman Bevacqua
The New York Times

Justin Meservie
Monitor Deloitte

Maia Woluchem
Ford Foundation

Friday, April 3, 2020

3 - 5 p.m.

1501 Wesley W. Posvar Hall, 1st Floor

Questions? Email MQEInfo@pitt.edu

New MS in Quantitative Economics
(MQE) program enrolling now!

Learn More

Connect with Pitt alumni and current students with Pitt Commons.

Learn More

Kenneth P. Dietrich School of Arts and Sciences
Department of Economics
4700 Wesley W. Posvar Hall, 230 South Bouquet Street
Pittsburgh, PA 15260
(412) 648-1730

Update Your Information | Unsubscribe

Support Pitt Economics

